

He thought it was a nightmare, he couldn't believe what he had just seen. Those two fingers will stay in his mind forever.

Chapter 5 :

After a half hour trip, he arrived to the old factory. As he arrived, he heard children's shouts. He ran in all directions because he didn't know how to enter. He finally climbed at a window. He has entered.

He was terrified, but the images of Alice and Antoine were stronger. He silently looked in the main room.

The director was here. He had restarted the old machines, one in particular, the biggest one, a gigantic oven, perhaps where was melted the metal. His children were also here. When he saw them, he couldn't resist. He ran to them, and embraced them. The director took out a gun and tried to shoot him. Kevin ran to him and took his arms, trying to take the gun. The director and he fought, and, during this short time, the children succeeded in escaping. They didn't go out the room ; they screamed « Come on, dad ! Come with us ! He's going to kill you ! » Kevin and the director, who were moving closer and closer to the oven , continued to fight. Kevin was feeling weaker and weaker.

With a last effort, thinking of his children's lives and not to his, he threw himself in the oven, pulling the director in the fall. The children ran to it, but they just had the time to hear ;

« Forgive me, and try to be better than I have been »

Chapter 6 :

Once the police took Alice and Antoine back to their aunt's, they discovered her body. The children explained them everything, because the director explained to them his plan, sure that they would die twenty minutes later. The police placed them in an orphanage. They grew up, but never forgot this horrible adventure. And what has the recipe become ? Well, if you see a boy and girl, who only have nine fingers, ask them the question
